THE FACTS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES

- ★ After school programs are proven to address issues and risk factors that lead to school dropout.
- ★ Students who participate in after school programs improve in key areas that foster success in school, including social and emotional development, increased interest and engagement in school, and avoidance of risky behaviors.
- ★ Students who attend after school programs consistently improve reading and math grades.
- ★ The hours of 3 to 6 pm are the peak hours each day for at-risk behavior of middle school students.
- ★ Students who attend after school programs get more exercise, have more confidence in themselves, engage in positive social interactions, understand the need for clearly defined limits to their behavior.
- ★ After school programs provide students leadership opportunities.
- ★ After school programs help working families who need a safe place and supervision of children from 3 to 6 pm.

Research and data from After School Alliance www.afterschoolalliance.org

Extra . . . Special Features of Blast

- ★ We are open on early-dismissal days (no extra charge).
- ★ We plan all-day field trips on in-service days when there is no school.
- ★ Family Night Programs include dinner, and provide parents up-to-date information on what is happening.
